

To Whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter as a reference for Willem Cashion.

I have had the pleasure to teach Willem over 2.5 years, Willem is a great student always punctual, who is lively and personable. He continues to push himself to the limits to get quality work done. Time after time he has sat through adversity just to come out on top at the end.

Never once did Willem ever bring into question authority and never once did, he ever say a simple task was stupid, he took every task head on.

Willem worked so hard on his class work including his assessments and was once again a top tier student. Willem at first questioned himself but in the end just got his head down and took on the task and always came out on top.

I believe Willem will be an asset to any company potentially looking at employing him.

Kind regards,

Cameron.
